

Women's History Student Writing Exercise

Designed for ADAW (Alabama Direct Assessments of Writing) Preparation

DEFINITION OF NARRATIVE WRITING

NARRATIVE WRITING relates a clear sequence of events that occurs over time. Both what happens and the order in which the events occur are communicated to the reader. Effective narration requires a writer to give a clear sequence of events (fictional or non-fictional) and to provide elaboration.

NARRATIVE PROMPT

Choose a photograph of a woman working or playing from The Women of Alabama online exhibit. Write a story about the activity she is doing. Describe the steps of her activity from start to finish.
